Enthusiasm of St. Joseph's church learned with regret that the appointment of Rev. John A. Sullivan to St. Bridget's church, Middletown. Rev. Father Sullivan came to this city in the spring of 1912 and during his stay made many friends, particularly among the Polish residents whose language he speaks so fluently. All feel, however, that Father Sullivan has received a deserved promotion. Father Sullivan begins his duties in the Middletown parish Tuesday of next week.

Rev. Otto Spummeier, who will succeed Father Sullivan as pastor of the local church, comes from St. Andrew's church, Colchester. He is no stranger to local people, however, as during 1910-1911 he was curate at St. Joseph's church. St. Joseph's church will as usual have two assistants, Rev. Charles M. Kelley, appointed in April, 1912, to reside at the church, and Rev. John A. Sullivan, who will be in charge of the church during his absence.

Williamsville business houses kept Good Friday a difference in the power of their electric lights when they were called upon to use them late in the afternoon. A volt meter in a local electrical store showed that the power (kind of the Goodville-Williamsville lighting company was sending them) was sending out 115 volts and the party house was with a few minutes' delay on the volt meter started back to 114 volt mark. It is claimed by people understanding electricity that a high voltage will burn out electric lamps quickly, as the lamps are only intended to stand a pressure of about 115 volts.

Mrs. Edith Currier Green, of Chelsea, Mass., "collet" who played in the annual Old Folks' concert of the Methodist Episcopal church is to assist in the Easter music at that church Sunday morning. She is to be accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Charles H. Beebe.

John F. Peck recently celebrated his ninetieth birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert M. Blanton of Winsted. Mr. Peck was principal of the First District school, 1854-55. He was among the veteran teachers who attended the Old School and Home Week, in June, 1915.

Fred N. Greene of No. 626 Main street has received a patent on an attachment which makes the music of a phonograph clearer in tone than other attachments. The patent was granted in full under the date March 25, 1916. Before applying for the patent on his invention, Mr. Greene had used it over two years in experimenting.

Judge John K. Foley, of Rockville, Superior for Tolland county, has offered an amount of $1000 for the death of David Rogers of Andover, killed on his home on Sunday, March 12 by Charles Mack. The amount will be held at the Andover town hall this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. During the past few days Deputy Sheriff John W. Watkins has been busy calling witnesses to the shooting. Captain Robert T. Hurley of the state police has been in Rockville gathering evidence on the case, and Sheriff John A. Albro of Tolland county has been in the town of Andover to see that the shooting in Captain Hurley and County Investigator William B. Jackson on the night of the murder.

Engine Company No. 11, 111 for a chimney at the house owned by Napoleon Bacon, No. 12 Spruce street. The place was a stubborn one, and before the fire was under control. Mrs. Amy Maxham of No. 744 Main street left Friday for a week's visit with her son, Frank Maxham of Webster, Mass.

The new truck used to carry men and from work at the Tyson sawmill, turned completely over late Thursday afternoon after a run of several days. Carey Hill in the town of Scotland. The machine is seen and when about half way up the hill, the driver, who was attempting to shift gears but before they caught the car started down the hill backwards gaining speed fast. None of the occupants were injured to any extent, two receiving bruises in the fall. The top of the car was smashed.

Funeral services for Mrs. Agnes Plocha were held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the undertaking parlors of the Killourey Brothers, No. 16 Union street. The services were read by Rev. John E. Clark. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery where Father Clark conducted a communal service. Principal George S. Barker, of the Willimantic Normal Training school, answered this week that the new dormitory for the students at the school would be ready in time for the fall term opening. The new dormitory will sit a long felt need at the school as in past years students have been forced to find board in homes in the city as near the school as possible.

Work on the new building began in the spring of 1912 and it was then believed that the building would be completed by September, 1913. Securing materials for work and labor to erect the building held up progress and it will not be completed for several weeks. When the workmen leave, the building is to be furnished by the firm securing contracts on bids which were sent out last year.

The new dormitory will accommodate 15 students and several of the teachers. The number of students enrolled at the school for the present school year is 75. The graduating class of 1911 will number 41. Before the war broke out the registration for the school was the record made of 1909 and Principal Barker expects an increase in enrollment for the coming year.

The street policeman at the corner of Jackson and Union streets was called to pieces several days ago by W. O. Huntington of No. 47 Elm street, Norwich and in his report to the police he stated that a boy named "Top" while trying to avoid hitting a boy who was crossing the street. Upon investigation the police found witnesses who claimed that the Huntington took the turn too fast to clear the marker. The police are to ask Mr. Huntington to settle for the damage done.

TERRIBLE CASE OF ECZEMA

Prominent Veterinary of Dover Suffered Tortures for Twelve Years

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" and "Booth's Salve," Finally Brought Relief

Dover, N. H.

"In 1906, I began to be troubled with Eczema. It started on my face and gradually spread. The second summer, I was so badly afflicted I had to lay off work. I would keep my hands tied at night to prevent digging into my flesh while asleep. I spent hundreds of dollars in seeking relief. I would go for several months without trouble and then the Eczema would break out again and I would be in for a stage of suffering. My hands, especially across the knuckles, would be so puffed and swollen I could not do any obstetrical work or operations.

It was about three months ago I chanced to read an ad. of 'Fruit-a-tives' about a person being cured of Weeping Eczema by using this remedy and 'Booth's Salve.' I bought both and in about a week, noticed an improvement. I have now used two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and one of 'Booth's Salve' and am entirely free of Eczema. My flesh is clear and smooth and I am that gratified with the result that I cannot proclaim too loudly the merits of these remedies."

E. N. OLZENDAM, D. V. M.

Both remedies are sold at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50. At all dealers or sent postpaid by FRUIT-A-TIVES Limited, OGDENSBURG, N. Y.
